

WEATHER IS PROMISED FOR TODAY

Director Church Says Indications Point to an Ideal Day.

WEDNESDAY'S TEMPERATURES.

Maximum 37 degrees
Minimum 25 degrees
Normal 30 degrees
Forecast—Friday, fair.

Today was an ideal day. The atmosphere was warm and not a single cloud was seen in the bright blue sky. There was a marked rise in temperature. Today, Acting Section Director Church says, the good weather will continue.

Barometric pressure prevailed throughout the entire country, and the New England coast, light depressions existed. Light drizzle occurred over portions of Washington, Montana, Nebraska, Oklahoma and Texas, while fair weather has prevailed elsewhere.

To the continuance of high pressure of the Rockies, fair weather Friday is indicated for this today's meteorological record at the office of the United States weather bureau for the twenty-four hours ending at 6 p. m. as follows: Maximum temperature, 37 degrees.
Minimum temperature, 25 degrees.
Normal temperature, 30 degrees, which was above normal.

Excess of temperature since the beginning of the month, 4 degrees.
Excess of precipitation since the first of January, 1.375 inches.
Excess of precipitation since the first of January, 1.375 inches.

SOCIETY

In order to prevent impositions and embarrassments, the Tribune requests that persons leaving social notes, and especially marriage notices or engagements, for publication, leave with them names through which the source of the same may be traced if the matter is called in question.

CALENDAR.

The gymnasium girls of the University of Utah will entertain at a matinee dance this afternoon.

The current events and current literature sections of the Ladies' Literary club will meet at 2:30 this afternoon at the clubhouse.
Mrs. Weston will give a sketch of Eliza Culver Hall, author of "Sally Ann's" and Aunt Jane's Experiences. She will also tell Mrs. Hall's motive for these popular stories. Mrs. C. E. Richards will read some of "Aunt Jane's" and Sally Ann's Experiences, and other sketches of Mrs. Hall.

There will be a French and German play at Rowland hall, this evening, given by eight of the students. It will be for the benefit of the Lenten fund.

Miss Vera Rich will entertain the A. H. club of the University of Utah at her home this evening.

One of the largest and most elaborate affairs of the week will be the dance at the Odeon this evening, to be given by the Governors club. It will be the last dance for the season to be given by this club.

Mrs. Isadora Meyer will entertain at a box party Saturday, for Mrs. L. L. Downing.

The board of directors of the Utah Federation of Women's clubs, including Mrs. Byron Cummings, president; Mrs. B. A. Corey of Ogden, vice-president; Mrs. C. H. McMahon, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Sara Whalen Tallamo of Provo, recording secretary; Mrs. A. R. Wheeler of Park City, treasurer; Mrs. E. O. Leatherwood, general federation state secretary; Mrs. George R. Hancock, director of the general federation, and Mrs. M. M. F. Allen of Park City, Mrs. H. M. Barrows of Ogden, Mrs. E. E. Crossman of Provo, Mrs.
W. W. Crawford of Mant, Mrs. Chase Hatch of Heber City, Miss Katherine Dugall of Springville, Mrs. R. S. Porter of Ogden, Mrs. Crutson of Brigham City, Mrs. Fred Blakely and Mrs. L.
M. Bailey of this city, will be present at the federation meeting at 10:30 this morning, in the faculty rooms of the University of Utah. Following the meeting the ladies will be guests of honors at a luncheon to be given there by the university.

Miss Allie Fletcher entertained the Undine club girls at a handsomely appointed Japanese supper, at her home, Thursday evening. The guests were seated at one long table, which was effectively decorated. A large Japanese parol hung over the table, with streamers of yellow and white ribbons going from there to the corners of the table, while the centerpiece was a large Japanese tea set, filled with red and white roses. The place cards were small Japanese fans and parols. Covers were laid for Miss Alice Smith, Miss Margaret B. Price, Miss Katherine Calhoun, Miss Anna Frazier, Miss Eva Griggs, Miss Mamie Brice, Miss Margaret King, Miss Beth Bradford, Miss Lyle Bradford, Miss Alene Delaney, Miss Virginia Smith, Miss Edith Edmunds, Miss June Edmunds, Miss Marjorie Summerhays and Miss Alice Hardy.
Games and music followed the dinner.

Two interesting events are being planned by the directors of the Generational society. The first for next Tuesday evening, April 6, when a party will be given at Social hall, in honor of the descendants of the founders of the L.
D. S. church, including those of the patriarch, Hyrum Smith, and Samuel H. Smith. It will be a picnic party at 6 o'clock, followed by a supper at 6 o'clock, with a program. Only the authorities of the church will be invited.
Another similar affair will be given Thursday evening, April 8, under the auspices of the social section of the society, in honor of the descendants of Zion's camp.

Mrs. A. E. Kessler of Oakland, Cal., who is here visiting her daughter, Mrs.
C. B. Allen, was guest of honor at a charming spring luncheon given Thursday, by Mrs. C. E. Richards. The decorations were in green, with ferns in the center of the prettily appointed table, around which were seated the guests of honor, Mrs. A. C. Maclean, Mrs. S.
F. Penton, Mrs. C. S. Vahner and Mrs. L. M. Bailey.

Mrs. W. F. Beer entertained four tables at a "500" club luncheon afternoon, in honor of Mrs. L. L. Downing, who will leave soon for California. The guests were the members of the old "500" club, which Mrs. Downing was president of when she formerly lived here. Prizes were won by the guest of honor, and by Mrs. Abner Luman.

Mr. and Mrs. George T. Odell and their daughter, Miss Marie, will leave today for New York, and sail from there Thursday, April 15, on the La Provence, to spend the summer abroad, touring in their auto, which has been shipped. During their absence their home will be occupied by Doctor and Mrs. T. G.
Odell.

Mrs. John Reed entertained the Plate club at a luncheon at the College inn, Thursday, followed by bridge at her apartment in the Xavies. The decorations were in pink and white carnations.
Prizes were won by Mrs. J. S. Taylor and Mrs. T. R. Black. The next meeting will be Thursday, April 15, with Mrs. J. H. McMillan.

Mrs. J. F. Grant, Jr., and Mrs. W.
M. Hunt entertained five tables at a bridge tea Thursday afternoon, in honor of Mrs. Grant's sister, Mrs. D. C. Escles of Ogden. The rooms were bright with spring flowers. Prizes were won by Mrs. C. C. Crismon, Mrs. H. P. Kirt-ley, Mrs. Fred Odell, Mrs. W. H. Bantz and Mrs. R. A. Grant.

Mrs. J. M. Davis and Mrs. H. Vance Lund left Thursday evening for a two-weeks' trip to southern California.

The Misses Alice and Mary Wall are spending their Easter vacation with Col-

One and Mrs. E. A. Wall and two young daughters at Atlantic City, N. J.

Mr. M. Huff and daughter Golda left last night for a short stay in Boise.
Later they will be joined by Mr.
Huff and then go to Seattle, where they expect to remain for some time.

Dr. J. C. Landenberger returned Wednesday evening from spending the past two months in the east, where he visited the large hospitals.

Mrs. L. L. Downing, who is the guest of Doctor and Mrs. J. C. Landenberger, will probably leave the last of next week for the east.

Mrs. George E. Hale left Wednesday evening for her home in Portland, Or., where she will spend the summer with her parents.

Miss Florence Gwilliam of Ogden spent Thursday here, guest of Mrs. J.
F. Grant, Jr.

Object to Strong Medicines.

Many people object to taking the strong medicines usually prescribed by physicians for rheumatism. There is no need of internal treatment in any case of muscular or chronic rheumatism, and more than nine out of every ten cases of the disease are of one or the other of these varieties. When there is no fever and little (if any) swelling, you may know that it is only necessary to apply Chamberlain's Liniment freely to get quick relief. Try it. You are certain to be pleased with the quick relief which it affords. Price, 25 cents; large size, 50 cents. For sale by all druggists.

BOARD OF EDUCATION WILL REORGANIZE TODAY

The state board of education will meet in State Superintendent Nelson's office Saturday morning and reorganize for the coming two years, but it is not likely that there will be any material change in the organization.
The board is composed of Mr. Nelson, President; J. T. Kingsbury of the University of Utah and President John A. Widtsoe of the Agricultural college, ex-officio members, and Superintendent E. H.
Christensen of the city schools and Carl A. Marcussen of Price, superintendent of the Carbon county schools, who, by the governor's appointment, succeeds William Allison of Ogden, eight years a member of the board. Mr. Nelson is president and President Kingsbury is secretary of the board.

WANT STORES CLOSED ONE DAY EACH WEEK

Steps for bringing about the closing of all grocery stores and butcher shops on Sundays were taken at the meeting of the Butchers and Grocers association Wednesday night. The meeting was well attended and considerable discussion was had over the matter. It was pointed out that it was desirable to close on one day of the week, and that many of the stores which now kept open for a few hours were compelled to do so because others opened.
There is a city ordinance requiring the closing of these stores on Sunday, and it was the unanimous sense of the meeting that all stores which are kept open be visited and an effort made to have them closed. F. H. Wright, F. W. Wilson, A.
Hudson, C. M. Lees and C. E. Allen were appointed a committee to take charge of the matter.

Although there is no disposition on the part of the association to invoke the enforcement of the law, it is thought possible that the aid of Chief Barlow may be sought to bring about the desired result.

Get
A Razor to Fit Your Face

The Wiss is not a fad.
It is a real razor—built of the highest grade tool steel, tempered ground and tested by the most experienced workmen in the world. The

WISS
RAZOR

is sharp when you buy it—sharp when you shave with it—sharp every day in the year, a razor that makes shaving a quick, satisfactory, painless process.
Ask your dealer to show you the Wiss Favorite Razor—it costs $2.50. A guarantee of complete satisfaction goes with every one.

THERE are two ways to be sure of getting pure all-wool clothes.

One way is to pay high prices; the other is to buy CLOTH-CRAFT CLOTHES—the only guaranteed all-wool line in America at $10.00 to $25.00.

All wool is as important in the quality of good clothes as solid gold is in jewelry.

CLOTHES made of pure, all-wool fabrics hold their shape best and wear longest. In CLOTH-CRAFT CLOTHES, for men and young men, the high standard of the all-wool fabric is maintained in every other feature of the garments—in style, fit, linings and workmanship.
